Section 31-3-21 (c) of the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island provides for transporter plates. A transporter may operate or move any vehicle of a type otherwise required to be registered under this chapter upon the highway solely for the purpose of delivering, upon displaying on the vehicle the plates issued to him or her as provided in Sections 31-3-23 through 31-3-25, inclusive.

Transporter is defined in section 31-1-19 (j). "Transporter" means every person engaged in the business of delivering vehicles required to be registered under chapter 3 of this title from a manufacturing, assembling, and distributing plant to a point of destination or for the purpose of weighing, testing, transporting, or delivering that vehicle, or for the purpose of moving that vehicle in connection with making installations on or improvements to it, or for repossession of or foreclosure of it.

Section 31-6-12 (8). Fees for transporter. For transporter registration number plates and a transporter certificate, thirty dollars ($30.00) if the transporter operates not more than three (3) motor vehicles, trailers, or semi-trailers at any one time, and ten dollars ($10.00) plus the cost of number plates for every motor vehicle, trailer, or semi-trailer in excess of three (3) motor vehicles, trailers or semi-trailers.

Section 31-33-13. The division of motor vehicles shall not issue a registration under the provisions of sections 31-3-20 through 31-3-27, inclusive, until the person applying for the registration shall furnish proof of financial responsibility.
